WHHS NJROTC Received Distinguished Unit Award

Congratulations to Cadet Commander Adonia Riley, her staff, and all NJROTC cadets in being recognized as Distinguished Unit, the Navy's top tier national award! This award recognizes overall unit activity and accomplishments as well as massive amounts of community service and school support.

Commander William Murtagh stated, "The cadets did a great job and this shows that little Wade Hampton can easily hold their own with much larger schools with far more resources. Notable and key to this award is the overall support from faculty, community, administration and school board. Most units don't enjoy the support that we do. Everyone shares in this award, right along with the cadets."

On Friday, 26 February 2016, Wade Hampton NJROTC received their annual Navy inspection. The Navy requires that every NJROTC unit be inspected each year. Wade Hampton High School's NJROTC Unit is under the direction and leadership of Commander William Murtagh and Senior Chief John Stone.
