Dr. Raul Carranza,

July 2018

Edition 1, Volume 1

Welcome to TEACH Public Schools! TEACH Public Schools is comprised of talented and hardworking teams of individuals who are determined to prove that we can close the achievement and opportunity gaps that exist in the city of Los Angeles and that we can transform the lives of urban students and their families. I am humbled every year to help lead and be a part of this mission. The 2018-19 school year is officially here! Our teachers and instructional assistants return to work on Monday, July 30th and we have an outstanding two weeks of personalized professional development and team building waiting for them. I am appreciative of everyone who has worked through the summer planning for this upcoming school year, organizing our schools, and interviewing and hiring new staff. Our students begin school August 13th and I am looking forward to welcoming them back to a safe and positive school environment conducive to learning and preparing them to be the global 21st century leaders of tomorrow. To this end, I continue to encourage all staff to create a rich multicultural environment for learning; design an integrated curriculum, provide for children to become self-directed learners; and share their enthusiasm for learning, in an atmosphere of mutual respect and appreciation.

TEACH Public Schools Updates

TEACH Public Schools is proud to celebrate the class of 2018! On Wednesday, June 13th, TEACH Tech Charter High School held its graduation ceremony. 100% of our seniors graduated and 100% of our seniors will attend college this fall. Students will attend an array of prominent schools. Some of the schools include UC Merced, Cornell, Berkeley, and UC Riverside just to name a few. Congratulations to all our seniors on their achievements.

This fall we are expanding and adding an elementary school to TEACH Public Schools.

TEACH Preparatory Mildred S. Cunningham & Edith H. Morris Elementary School will open its doors this fall to 100 TK, kindergarten, and first graders.

Thanks to the hard work of

Dr. Mak Gaines, founding principal of TEACH Preparatory Mildred S. Cunningham & Edith H. Morris Elementary School along with her team for ensuring that our new school is ready to educate the whole child so that he/she develops mentally, physically, emotionally, and socially and he/she is provided with a safe and nurturing environment. TEACH Preparatory Mildred S. Cunningham & Edith H. Morris Elementary School will host a ribbon cutting ceremony Saturday, August 11th. All families and employees are invited to attend this special event.

Leadership in education is about learning – the learning of others has to be at heart of the decision-making of any educational leader.

Vision

TEACH Public Schools will reach students of all backgrounds by teaching the entire child which includes the social, physical, emotional and intellectual needs of the student. Upon graduation, the knowledge and the experiences acquired at our schools will be effectively applied to their daily life.

Mission

TEACH Public Schools' mission is to create a high quality, innovative teaching and learning environment that focuses on literacy, integrating state-of-the-art technologies across the core curriculum to achieve academic proficiency for all students.
