CA Dash Board/Student achievement

Funes- All data pertaining to state is indicated in this dashboard
State indicators are to the left side (monitored by the state of CA)
Chronicle absences are not in existence at the moment
Suspension rate/ graduation rates are shown
Math and ELA are indicated
17-18 school year will be shown on the dashboard the following year.
Suspension rates are something to celebrate
Other subgroups such as (African American groups) are shown
0% suspension rate for our school
English language progress- currently seeing improvement with our current
EL students
ELA- Currently we are in the yellow section (LOW) as a school
Subgroups(students with disabilities) currently red- students are very low in this area (ELA) ELL students are also extremely low (red) Hispanic/Latino groups (yellow) not performing well in ELA area.
Math
The area that needs the most work (red/orange)
It only reflects grade levels 6-8th
Next school year it will reflect the 11th grade class Sofia- Mentions that ESL students are the ones that usually perform the lowest because of the language barrier those students have.
Urquieta- explains the group placement break down. (overall our color is yellow) Achievements and how much a subgroup grew.
Funes- Although our scores are low we maintain to out perform neighboring schools.
CA dashboard is public and anyone can view it

ELAC

Urquieta explains the committee- this committee was actually held last year by teachers and staff to analyze the ELL group and identify their strengths and weaknesses.

Curriculum was purchased because of this committee
CA is rushing schools to place in a ELAC committee
Both Alliance and LAUSD schools are forming this committees
ELAC consist of parents and teachers
A meeting was held a few weeks ago (prior to spring break)
ELL parents must be present.
Requirements for this committee is explain
51% of the members must be ELL parents this committee can provide recommendations on what they feel benefits
the ELL students

The ELAC can give all authority to SSC but the committee decided to be a separate meeting

The next meeting will be May 3rd and will consist of ELL parents AP and PES.

This committee will decide on items that can go into the LCAP however, SSC votes.

LAUSD/WASC Updates:

Both LAUSD and WASC had nothing but amazing things to say about our school.

LAUSD- no recommendations from LAUSD however, scores have not been released (until June)

LASUD recommends that we continue to do what we do

LAUSD shared that we have evidence of everything that we have Ex. Date walls, class ambassadors etc.

Students were asked to rate their school

“4.5 as a complex because we provide opportunities, we are a family, and loving”

“5,our school does an amazing job with curriculum and uniform policy”

“5 teachers are committed to be college ready”

WASC-

Celebrate school wide strength

Parent involvement0 WASC enjoyed our families

PBIS, PD and they feel are phenomenal

Focus-

student and teacher voice (getting more input from teacher and students)

Continue to support

Continue to have a high parent participation

Continue valid communication in PD to support student achievement

More independent options

They like the idea of HS getting college credit high school credit

Workload for teacher (balance off their task)
