

College and Career Focus: Public Speaking

This is information to guide instruction and a resource for family and students to have a better understanding of where the educational value in the specific class will aid in College, Career, life choice, and technology.

How can students use the material in college

Public speaking is a skill that students will use frequently when presenting information in college courses during individual/paired/group projects.

How can students use material in career

Public speaking skills are necessary in most careers and are essential when initially interviewing for positions in these careers.

Resources for students to aid in specific career choice

Internet resources; distinguished leaders in various professions.

Significantly important content to remember

Tone, diction, voice control, projection, presentation of self.

Technology standards and skills needed for college and career

8.1 and 8.2 standards listed

21st Century Life and Careers

Standards that correlate with career bands 9.1-9.3.

Technology Skills Required

General computer/internet knowledge.