

English 3

Dear Students and Parents:

During this 2-week hiatus, students may continue to work on Pronoun Use, Pronoun Antecedent, Subject-Verb Agreement, End of Sentence Punctuation, and Within Sentence Punctuation activities.

They may also complete their classwork, annotations, TDQs and Ethos, Pathos, Logos identification within each speech if they have not done so already such for each speech, (Dr. King, Sister Souljah and Malcolm X).

An Enrichment activity is also included.

I suggest students work on at least #1, 5, 6, 10, 11 and 12 of this project.

If you or your student have any questions, please feel free to email me at ptfisher@cps.edu.

Thank you.

Mrs. P. Thomas-Walls

Pick 4-5 activities to complete, esp. #1, 5, 6, 10, 11, 12

- 1) Do meditation 5-10 minutes per day. Log it. Write how you felt before and after.
- 2) Write in a journal daily on what is going on and how they are feeling. Also, make a list of 5 things every day they are thankful for and that make them happy
- 3) Write a research paper or make a PowerPoint on universal healthcare vs single payer
- 4) Analyze the exponential Coronavirus graphs and the flattening the bell curve graph
- 5) Write a narrative essay on the best day of your life
- 6) Every day, choose 5 objects you see in your house. Describe each of them in as much detail as possible, with at least 5 details for each. (This is a technique therapists teach to reduce anxiety). creative writing exercise
- 7) Read the article on homeless people taking over LA vacant homes. Write 1 page about whether you agree with their actions or not. <https://www.latimes.com/homeless-housing/story/2020-03-14/homeless-moms-occupy-house-los-angeles-caltrans-coronavirus-pandemic>
- 8) Write about why social distancing is effective
- 9) Read this Psychology Today article and do 2 of the suggested calming strategies, such as write about other situations in which you felt afraid in a situation with an unknown outcome and you made it through. <https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/blog/divorce-course/202003/5-steps-stay-calm-during-pandemic>

10) Ask your family members to teach you something you don't know how to do such as do the laundry, cook their favorite family recipes, count money, do taxes and change oil on the car

11) Ask your family members, especially parents, grandparents and elderly family members to describe an important story from their past, such as immigrating to the USA, how your parents or guardians met, their most important memory as a child. Then, write down their story in as much detail as possible.

12) Write at least a 2 page paper on "resilience" and provide 3 examples of major historical events where people were resilient. Describe the events in detail (i.e. slaves, Blacks during Reconstruction, etc)
