

Dear Kindergarten Families,

During this time at home, here are some voluntary websites your children can use, we suggest students set aside time each day to practice academic skills.

SUGGESTED OPTIONS:

- Your child should know their log in information for the learning resources listed below, if they don't please feel free to message me on Schoology :)
- Read 20 minutes a day, with books or using Raz-Kids, students will click on the green square that says Kids Login. Teacher usernames are: Mrs. Peterson- Petersonj45, Ms. Schock- kschock2, Ms. Vollmerhausen- cvollmerhausen <https://www.raz-kids.com/>
- Practice reading and math skills using eSpark at home. <https://www.esparklearning.com/>
- Write a story with your family each week: Narrative (about something you do or something that happened to you) Opinion (What do you think about something) and/or Informative (teach us about something). Be sure to include punctuation marks, finger spaces, and your sounds for spelling words. When we return to school, bring your stories to share.
- Starfall www.starfall.com
- Science <https://mysteryscience.com/school-closure-planning>

Scholastic currently has free resources at www.scholastic.com/learnathome

Some other free resources are:

Khan Academy, www.khanacademy.com Storyline Online, www.storylineonline.com National Geographic Kids, www.kids.nationalgeographic.com and Typing Club www.typingclub.com

Thank you for supporting learning at home. We will be sending more learning opportunities as we receive them.

We hope that you and your family are safe and healthy at this time of uncertainty in our community and we look forward to seeing all of our students when we get back to school.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with questions. We look forward to seeing you all again after Spring Break!

Your Kindergarten Team,

Mrs. Peterson, Ms. Schock and Ms. Vollmerhausen
