

Alhambra High's Karen Jacobson Wins Game Changer Award with 23 Student Nominations

April 12, 2019, Alhambra, CA — BRAVA to Karen Jacobson, beloved ALHAMBRA High English teacher, who was honored by the AUSD Board of Education on April 2, 2019, for winning the Game Changer Award.

Ms. Jacobson set a record by being nominated by 23 students and by AHS social studies department chair, Javier Gutierrez, for her amazing work with immigrant students. Her belief in them made all the difference in their ability to learn. Ms. Jacobson is evidence that every student is one adult away from success. Her relationship-building skills make her a role-model for students and staff alike, adding so much character to AUSD family.

###

PHOTO CAPTION: Alhambra High English teacher Karen Jacobson was honored by the AUSD for winning the Game Changer Award. Known for her work with and belief in immigrant students, Ms. Jacobson set a record by being nominated by 23 students. On hand to help her celebrate were left to right: Denise R. Jaramillo, AUSD Superintendent; Caroline Botros, AHS Assistant Principal; Game Changer Award winner, AHS teacher Karen Jacobson; Carly Chavez, AHS Assistant Principal; Javier Gutierrez, AHS department chair; Stacie Colman-Hsu, AUSD Director Human Resources. [no photo credit needed]

